I have an MA in Jurisprudence from Oxford University and was called to the English Bar in October 1992. I then practised at the bar in London until leaving to migrate to Australia in 2003, at which time I had a broad practice and was practising from the Chambers of David Phillips QC, 199 Strand, London.

I was admitted as a Legal Practitioner in New South Wales in May 2004 and obtained a practising certificate from the Bar Association at that time.

Since May 2004, I have practised from 8th Floor Wentworth Chambers in a broad range of fields, but with a particular focus on general commercial, corporations, insolvency, inquiries, equity, probate, property, insurance and professional negligence.

I have served on the Bar Association Equal Opportunities Committee, Professional Conduct Committees and the Bar News Editorial Committee; and I am a Bar Exam marker and an advocacy instructor on the Bar Course.

I am a registered pupil master with the Middle Temple in England and a registered tutor in New South Wales.

I also act as a mediator and arbitrator.

I was appointed senior counsel in 2015 and I am currently the floor Head of Chambers.
